

KINETICA NEWS

Director's Message

What a hectic but amazing year it's been for us at Kinetica. Starting out the year with us moving to our new home in Malaga, it's been non-stop with performances, festivals, workshops and everything else in between!

There are no plans for slowing down although our usual term classes are over, we are still running a range of one-off workshops, and the Kinetica crew are still being kept busy with rehearsals for shows in the upcoming Fringe Festival so make sure you're kept up to date by liking our Facebook page if you haven't already.

From everyone at Kinetica, have a safe and wonderful Christmas and a happy, strong and flexible New Year!

Kinetica's Training Space is 1 Year Old

Between Christmas and New Years of 2014, like a traditional travelling circus, Kinetica made the big move to their new home in Malaga.

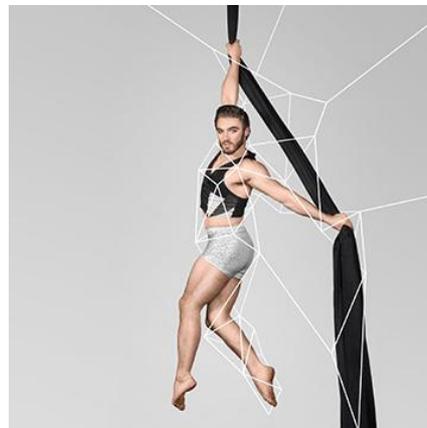

It's now been a year and we're proud to say that we've managed to achieve a lot in that time but there is definitely more to come in the year ahead.

A big thank you goes out to all of our Kinetica extended family, friends, supporters, audience members, trainees, clients, community and business partners and everyone else – thank you all and here's to many more years of circus craziness!!

Kinetica at Fringe World 2016

Kinetica is excited to announce our involvement in not ONE but TWO shows at the 2016 Fringe World Festival!!

Private Lessons

Over the Christmas and New Year break – before classes resume in 2016, Kinetica coaches are still available for private sessions that will help accelerate your circus goals.

Want to get stronger? Want to get more flexible? Want to focus on a specific apparatus? All of the above?

Talk to any of our coaches or send us an email and we'll be happy to provide some of the options that we have available.

Coaches Training to Give You More!

By: Joey

There is never a dull moment working in Kinetica. Continuous education is important for the professional development of the coaches in Kinetica so that we're able to provide our trainees with fresh new skills and to update training methods. Over the last few months we have been very busy with workshops with international performers and trainers to build our skill sets for both performance development and coaching purposes.

Just to name a few, some of the workshops included Rosalie Ducharme, creator of Cirque Du Soleil's Totem's static trapeze act, Bendy Kate for Lyra and contortion and Claudia Alessi – choreographer.

We can't wait to include the things that we have learned in our training and to share them with our trainees in the New Year.

Term 4 Instagram Winner

Each term Kinetica will be giving away a one-on-one private session as a prize for the best Instagram picture.

To be in the running, take a photo of yourself doing something circusy in our training space, upload it to Instagram including our hashtag: #kineticacdt and that's it. The more you post, the more entries you get and it will then be featured on our Facebook page Instagram feed.
